

Procedure for Inactive Clients

In case of dormant/inactive account, client in person present for requesting restart of trading in his/her account in writing along with the identity proof at our office. Our official will verify all the details of the client as filed at the time of account opening and in person verification. After verification & approved by the senior officer of the company, client can start trading in his /her account.